

A hand-drawn diagram showing a triangle with a line passing through it. The line enters from the top left, crosses the top side of the triangle, and exits from the right side. This illustrates a line intersecting a closed shape.